

Ivan Lopez-Reynoso is one of the most important opera conductors of his generation. He accumulates 33 opera titles to-date covering from Mozart to Kurt Weil as well as Verdi, Rossini, Puccini, Massenet Shostakovich and Wagner.

Associate Director of Orquesta Filarmónica de UNAM (OFUNAM), and Principal Guest Conductor with Oviedo Filarmonia, he has also been Deputy Music Director at Staatstheater Braunschweig.

He was the youngest conductor the Rossinian Academy in Pesaro at just 23 years of age, to conduct "Il Viaggio a Reims" chosen by Maestro A. Zedda. In 2017 he returned to the Rossini Festival in Pesaro to conduct the extraordinary concert with Ildar Abdrazakov and next Summer he returns again for the ROF 2020. He was the music director of Damiano Michieletto's revival of "La Scala di Seta" on tour in Oman. Ivan is also proud of his historical concerts with Javier Camarena with future projects in Spain, Middle East, Mexico and Japan.

Ivan is also a pianist, violinist and a gifted countertenor-mezzo.

His future projects will take him to opera in Chicago, Mexico, Germany and Spain, including a new Kurt Weil project with Andrea Moses at Teatro Arriaga Bilbao invited by Calixto Bieito. In opera he will conduct Javier Camarena in La Fille du Regiment.
